

At YouTube, we have Community Guidelines that set the rules of what is not allowed on the platform. We remove content that violates these guidelines, whether in videos or comments. Hate speech, predatory behaviour, graphic violence, malicious attacks and content that promotes harmful or dangerous behaviour isn't allowed on YouTube.

Among others, we have policies that cover:

- Hate Speech
 - We remove content promoting violence or hatred against individuals or groups based on any of the following attributes:
 - Age
 - Disability
 - Ethnicity
 - Gender identity and expression
 - Nationality
 - Race
 - Immigration status
 - Religion
 - Sex/Gender
 - Sexual Orientation
 - Victims of a major violent event and their kin
 - Veteran status
- Harassment and Cyberbullying
 - Content or behaviour intended to maliciously harass, threaten or bully others is not allowed on YouTube.
- Harmful or Dangerous Content
 - Content that aims to encourage dangerous or illegal activities that risk serious physical harm or death is not allowed on YouTube.

Please report content that violates our policies. Instructions for reporting violations of our Community Guidelines are available here.

Once content has been reported, YouTube's Trust & Safety team reviews it. Reviewers evaluate flagged videos against all our YouTube Community Guidelines and policies. If a video is found to violate our policies, it will be removed from YouTube. If a strike is particularly egregious or a whole channel is found in violation of YouTube's Community Guidelines, we may remove the channel and its videos immediately.

Comments can be turned off for any video by the uploader or managed by requiring pre-approval before they are posted publicly. Full details on the comment moderation features can be found here.
